Be merry.

Don't forget the poor.

Stay by your town merchants.

A Merry Christmas to all of our readers.

And to think we even lent Japan money to pay for warships and guns!

If Japan is really determined on a licking, she can get it. But Uncle Sam is pretty busy on other things just now.

If Governor Magoon can make the Cuban officeholders resign, there is work for him right here in the United States.

A colored minister advises all the negroes to "remove to a doubtful State." Such a move would quickly remove the doubt.

Bryan has been secured by the Y. M. C. A. for a San Jose lecture about February first. It is safe to say that it will be the lecture of the year.

Sheriff Ross yesterday filed a contest against Arthur Langford for the Sheriff's office. His object is chiefly to "vindicate" himself of any wrong-doing in the election, he says. There is little likelihood of a change in the count as at first announced. We will deal more fully with this subject next week.

Those Alameda saloons should go—every one of them. Why allow these dens to disgrace that important and historical avenue? And to make the thing complete, those same low, crime-breeding joints on the side streets in that locality should be at once cleaned up. They have been running long enough under the sanction of Supervisor John Roll. It's up to him to do his duty. Will he do it?

Brighten Up

"Brighten Up" time is here—the time to clean up about the house, renovate, and make the old things look neat and clean again. We can help you in the work with our line of SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS AND VARNISHES.

It is really surprising what a little paint or varnish will do toward brightening up dingy surroundings. Take The S-W. Family Paint, for instance. This is a linseed oil paint specially prepared for home decorating and painting. With it any one can renew the appearance of a hundred little things that now look worn and old. It dries with a good gloss and will stand scrubbing with soap and water. Comes in 26 attractive shades.

The S-W. Floorlac is another splendid household brightener. It is a stain and varnish combined and can be used on old or new woods equally well. Imitates the natural woods and gives a most pleasing effect.

These offer a few hints for you. Come in and have a "Brighten Up" talk with us and learn more about how we can help you in your Fall cleaning. Our line has a paint or varnish for every purpose.

BOLD ROBBERY.

The Bank of Campbell Broken Into, But Nothing Secured.

The people of Campbell were shocked Monday morning when it was announced that an attempt had been made to rob the Bank of Campbell, and a steady line of people could be seen hurrying to the scene of the daring hold-up.

From best obtainable information secured there were three men in the affair—possibly four—and a slight clew that a woman also had a part to play. As nearly as can be ascertained the robbers came to town at or near midnight Sunday, as at least one passenger coming on the twelve o'clock car passed a man standing in a shadow as he went to his room in the Sutter building. Howard Buffington came on the car and as he turned the bank corner tried the door, as was his custom, but saw no one.

The robbers secured an entrance to the bank by pounding out the panel in the rear door with a sledge hammer, which they had secured by breaking into J. C. Lloyd's blacksmith shop and stealing, in addition to a number of other tools for use in getting into the vault and safe.

Before starting in on their nefarious job it is pretty sure that they tried to get away with the nightwatchman at the J. C. Ainsley cannery—Wm. Carney—for the latter heard a mysterious rattling of the front door shortly after midnight, but at the time he thought it was made by a dog. Had he ventured out of the door at that time he would undoubtedly have been sandbagged or otherwise dealt with, as it was dark.

After the robbers had broken a hole in the bank door one or two entered, while one or two remained as sentinels on the corners, as later developed. Two sharp Southern Pacific Co. picks had been stolen from the tool box at the San Jose Narrow Gauge depot. These were used to pick a large hole into the brick vault, the robbers evidently believing that an entrance could be gained into the vault this way. After going through three tiers of bricks the attempt was given up and they then resorted to dynamite. It was the picking and falling of bricks that first aroused the near-by residents, for several persons heard the noise.

Chas. Sutter says he heard this noise for some time and on getting up he saw flashes from the robbers' lantern on the inside of the building. He lighted a lamp but was promptly ordered by the man with the gun to put it out, and he obeyed. He could not get down to the telephone either, and he had no gun nor any of his roomers, whom he aroused.

It was not long until a sharp report was heard—about 2:15—being the explosion of a dynamite charge placed in the upper left hand corner of the vault door. Another charge was exploded at the upper right hand corner, in an effort to break the hinges and locks, but both charges were ineffectual, and only tore off a part of the outer one-quarter inch plate and bending in the inner doors. After the first two failures a third charge was placed in the door but was left, the robbers finding it necessary to get away in a hurry after the explosions had occurred, although as a matter of fact they could have worked away for two or three hours without much danger of being hard pressed.

As the robbers were about to retreat Dr. Cooper came out on his back porch to see what was the matter. He heard one fellow say "Get back there" or something to that effect, and he thought it was a row between some of the boys and paid no attention to them, but returned to the house, not knowing that two of the shots which had just been fired had been aimed at him and the bullets had hit his porch a couple of feet from where he stood. His wife thought that he should investigate more carefully and Dr. Cooper went over in the dark and finding the doors locked, went to bed and slept until about five, when Sutter went to his home telling him that he was certain a robbery had been committed. They both went over and found the hole in the door. They entered, turned on the lights and found the robbers' tools, and some nitro-glycerine in a broken bottle on the floor, which had been used in conjunction with the dynamite.

At the time the two shots were fired at Dr. Cooper, the sentinel fired two shots in the air, probably to scare him. Wm. Carney saw these two shots from in front of the cannery, and suspecting something wrong, he fired three shots into the air. It is thought that it was this that caused them to put off up Central Avenue on the run. Rev. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Relfe and Mr. Neff and others heard them running and talking. It is now that the woman enters the affair, as thought by some. It is believed that a woman had a team in waiting to carry off the booty and which served to bring the two picks from San Jose. On Central Avenue, toward Hamilton, were many prints of a woman's shoe under the shade of the trees, the inference being that she was standing, watching developments, for the prints invariably faced Campbell. Then, who would suspect a party of persons driving along, if one was a woman? On the run from town one of the robbers threw off his coat, in the pockets of which were a case knife and some matches which corresponded to those left on the bank floor. This is the only clew the officers have. The thieves were provided with a dim light, improvised out of a large apricot can, with bulls eyes cut near the bottom of the tin, in which was placed a stub of a candle.

Sheriff Ross was of the opinion that the robbers were experts and would have succeeded in their work had they not been detected. But had they obtained an entrance to the vault they would still have had the most difficult job before them in blowing up the steel burglar proof safe, which is made of three inch chrome steel, and weighs about 1000 pounds, so the daily paper report that the robbers would have picked up the "little" safe and carried it away seems ridiculous. The bank officials feel justified in saying that the safe could not be blown open. They are pleased to be able to say, however, that very little damage was done, and that additional precautions will be taken to more thoroughly guard the bank's interests.

Had the Sheriff's office been notified at the first suspicion of robbery, the thieves would no doubt have been caught in the act, but as it was the officers were not notified until about six o'clock.

No clue has been found so far that has led to an arrest.

While the door to the bank vault is away being repaired, E. E. Weeks is employed as nightwatchman and is armed to the "teeth" for any possible looters.

Many interesting things are related about the robbery. Among them being that Mr. Brundage suspected that things were not right, but did not feel warranted in telephoning the officers, but that he raised a window and leveled a gun on the sentinel in front of the Sutter store, and only desisted from shooting at the urgent request of his wife, who feared that an innocent man might be shot.

John Evans, upon hearing the shots, got up, went to the front gate, but returned to bed, he not hearing any further noise. George Whitney, next door, on hearing the shots thought it was the doings of some boys and rolled over for another snooze. George has guns galore but this is once when he was caught "napping."

Upon leaving a robber hurled a rock through Mrs. Sutter's large window.

COUNTY SCHOOL MONEY.

$10,000.00 More Money Apportioned than for December, 1905.

County Superintendent Bateman and his assistant have completed the first apportionment of county school funds for December.

The total amount of county money apportioned is $95,536.50, this being $10,000 more than was set aside at this time last year.

The total number of census children the money is apportioned on is 16,661, and the percentage of teachers 273.73.

The promptness with which these heavy taxes were paid show the county to be in a most prosperous condition.

The sums set aside for the various districts are as follows:

Cambrian	367 00
Campbell	1,444 50
Doyle	331 00
Los Gatos	3,265 50
Meridian	708 00
Moreland	733 00
San Tomas	343 50
Saratoga	711 00
Union	349 50
Valley View	670 50
Willow Glen	1,783 50

Apportionments for the various High Schools of the county were made as follows:

Campbell	$ 3,509 50
Gilroy	5,265 26
Live Oak Union	6,061 24
Los Gatos	3,926 30
Mountain View	4,861 30
Palo Alto	8,838 60

New Interurban Car Service.

On and after December 17 cars leaving San Jose at 5 p. m., and 5.05 p. m., for Los Gatos, via Saratoga, and via Campbell, will make no stops between San Jose and Meridian Corners, and San Jose and Campbell.

Local cars will follow these cars to Meridian Corners and Campbell, making all stops.

A car will be put on leaving San Jose at 10.30 p. m. for Campbell and Los Gatos, returning to Saratoga, making all stops.

A car will be put on leaving San Jose at 10.30 p. m. for Saratoga, via Meridian Corners, making all stops.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than thirty years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Farmers Union, agent.

Not Always Asleep.

Robbers attempted to break in and loot the the Campbell bank last Sunday night but the citizens of that lively little town appear to be wide awake, even when they are supposed to be asleep, consequently the burglars were interrupted and made off before securing anything in the way of booty.—Los Gatos Mail.

Dealers say that those who have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are quite loyal to them and can not be persuaded to take any substitute. Get a free sample at Farmers Union, agent, give them a trial and you, too, will want them in preference to any other. They cure stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.

The Misses Letitia and Della Archibald came up from Santa Cruz to spend Sunday here with friends and to be present at the Christmas exercises at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

The Misses Adella and Gertrude Cook are home from their school duties for the holidays, the former from Berkeley, the latter from Corning.

Harmon Bibb came home from Oakland for Christmas.

Christmas at the Methodist Church.

On Sunday evening, at the Methodist church will occur the regular Christmas exercises, which will be made up of music, scripture readings, and stereopticon views of the life of Christ. These views will be placed upon the screen by Rev. T. H. Lawson, of East San Jose.

On Monday evening there will be two Christmas trees in the Sunday School room, from which presents will be given to pupils and teachers. It will be an informal affair, with some good things to eat for all present.

LOS GATOS-MAYFIELD CUT-OFF.

Work is Progressing Steadily Says President Hale.

Rapid progress is being made on the construction of the roadbed of the San Jose-Los Gatos Interurban Railway Company's electric line, which will connect at San Mateo with the United Railroads of San Francisco.

Rails are now laid on the San Mateo extension as far as Cupertino, and fifteen miles are yet to be graded.

According to an official statement given out yesterday by President O. A. Hale, a standard broad gauge road will be constructed and every modern convenience furnished patrons of the line. President Hale said:

"The greatest difficulty at the present time is to get men to work on the road and to procure material, but when the line is completed we will be well repaid, as we will probably get about 80 per cent. of the local travel between San Jose, Stanford University, Mayfield and Palo Alto. It will only be a question of a few years when the peninsula will be thickly populated with San Francisco people, who will find that it will consume no more time to go to and from the city than it does to cross the bay.

"Not only will we get city people, but thousands of others, as soon as we can provide the necessary transportation facilities for them. To prove the assertions that I have made, I will state that since the installation of the Interurban road there are about six thousand more people getting their mail from the San Jose postoffice than before.

"We expected to have part of the road in operation before this, but have been unable to get trace of the trucks for four cars that were sent to us from New Orleans a month ago."

It is said that the contract under which W. J. Bryan wrote for a syndicate, during his tour of the world, will yield him a net profit of $25,000, clear of traveling expenses of himself, wife, son and daughter.

T. W. TREANOR FILES CONTEST.

A CONTEST to the election of D. J. Flannery to the office of Recorder of this county was filed yesterday evening by Thomas Treanor.

Flannery, the Republican nominee in the recent election, received a plurality of 223 votes over Treanor, who was the Democratic nominee. Shortly after the election Treanor secured a temporary injunction restraining the County Clerk from issuing a certificate of election to Mr. Flannery. No steps were taken at that time to institute a contest, and the restraining order was dissolved, Flannery being given his certificate of election in accordance with the declaration of the official vote.

For some days rumor has been rife that a contest would be instituted by him, but it was not filed until late last night. The grounds upon which the contestant asks that the election of Flannery be declared void are three.

It is alleged by him that there was misconduct of the election officers of each of the precincts of the county. By this alleged misconduct the plaintiff claims to have lost at least four votes in each precinct. He also claims that a number of invalid votes were counted for Flannery, and that some legal votes were cast out which should have been given to the Democratic candidate.

Had there been no such misconduct on the part of the officials, avers Mr. Treanor, he would have received 5600 votes and his opponent but 5500. He asks that the ballots be reopened and counted to ascertain whether his contention is correct or not.

The second cause of action which is set up in the complaint against Mr. Flannery is that he was not eligible to be elected. The contestant claims that at the time of the election the respondent was the holder of a lucrative Federal position, namely, that of Deputy Revenue Collector, the salary on which was more than $500 per annum. Under the law, he claims, if this fact be indeed a fact, Mr. Flannery was not entitled to be even elected, let alone be inducted into office.

The third count in the complaint is that Mr. Flannery illegally promised to support certain persons for deputy recorderships should he be elected to the office. This, alleges the contestant, would be entirely contrary to the provisions of the purity of election law, and would work a forfeiture of the office to which Flannery was elected, provided it can be proven that he did make such promises.

In accordance with the petition presented to the court, Judge Welch yesterday evening ordered a special session of his court to convene on January 7 for the purpose of examining into the various charges made in the complaint.

John E. Richards is attorney for the contestant.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Farmers Union, agent.
